Re: Guardianship of Theresa Marie Schiavo

Dear Ms. Campbell:

As my client has expressed on numerous occasions to your client, and to everyone else involved in this matter, his sole desire is to carry out the express wishes of his wife which she repeated to him on many occasions. He has been, and remains firm in his conviction that perpetuating Theresa's life through artificial means contravenes her personal wishes, violates her personal liberties, and subjects her to horrible indignity.

Unfortunately, the fact that the law makes Mr. Schiavo the recipient of his wife's estate, has been utilized to cast suspicion on his motives. My client has also repeated with frequency that Theresa's well-being is his only concern. As it appears that the issue of money may be impeding the release of Theresa from this lingering and extended death, my client makes the following offer to resolve this case:

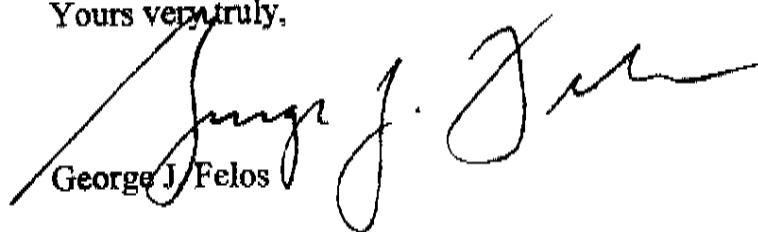

1. Mr. and Mrs. Schindler shall withdraw their objection to the termination of artificial provision of nutrition and hydration.
2. Mr. Schiavo, shall donate the net proceeds of Theresa's estate to a charity of his choice, so long as it is duly recognized by the Internal Revenue Service as a tax-exempt entity under Section 501 of the Internal Revenue Code.
3. This proposal, if accepted by your clients, shall be submitted to the court for approval at a hearing at which Mr. Schiavo is permitted to address the court.

If this proposal is not fully accepted by your clients within ten days of the date of this letter, it shall automatically be withdrawn. Your timely written statement to me shall be sufficient notice of the acceptance by your clients of this proposal.

In the interim, should you have any questions at all regarding the above, please contact me.

Yours very truly,

George J. Felos
